Faith Against Realism, and Piety as Contrasted With Infidelity-

The Apostates' Creed.

The Methodist church pulpit was yes terday filled in the morning by Rev. George S. Kene of Boston, Rev. George H. Adams assisted. Regular services were held at the Methodist church (South). At Trinity Episcopal church Rev. R W. Pearson delivered a sermon at 11

a. m. In the evening he delivered a leca. m. In the evening he delivered a lecture upon "Gambling: the Louisiana Lottery."

Rev. F. D. Rickerson, at the First the Opera House. FRANK SHIRLEY, pro-Baptist church, in the morning gave the first of his series of lectures on "Modern Infidelity," of which we append a digest. It was entitled:

"CULTURE OR CHRIST."

First of a series of lectures on some of the types of "Modern Infidelity"; with some studies of its causes, and some suggestions as to remedies.

COMMERCIAL HOTEL, CORNER CENTER and Jefferson streets. Only house employing white help throughout. HERRICK & LUHRS, Text: 2 Timothy 4:3, 4. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrines; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers; having itching ears; and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.

God's ultimatum is this: He demands unqualified faith in his Word, not in any human creed or interpretation, but in his Word-the only perfect revelation tion of himself in language, the only standard of moral excellence, the revelation of the only way of eternal life. God thunders from the mountain of fire God thunders from the mountain of fire the Ten Commandments—the summary STEEL RAILS FROG SWITCH AND SIGNAL of moral obligation. He explains, urges, entreats; but alters no word, modifies no shade of meaning, makes no compromise, provides for no possibility of unbelief. "Thus saith Jehovah: I Am that I Am." In the fullness of time God sends his Son-the manifestation of his character and purposes, the living gospel of redemption—and says to the world: "This is my beloved Son—hear ye him." "He that believeth in the Son hath everlasting life; and he that believeth not in the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him." Here the issue between God and man is joined.

Here is the bond of union; the com-mon point of attack for all these various, and often warring, systems of unbelief.
They refuse to accept the bible as the authoritative word of God, and they deny the declaration that eternal life is possible only through faith in Jesus as the Son of God. The infidelity with which we most often come in contact declares that God reveals himself more in the nature of man in a book. According to this theory I am, in a measure di-vine—a son of God, as Jesus was a Son of God, and so in harmolly with God. I need only to study the best models, to educate my higher faculties, to bring me into complete accord with the divine. Hence my moral intuitions are reliable. As I come to the bible something of God and truth in it touches me, harmonizes with my inner sense of right; this I accept, and it becomes a part of my received body of truth, a factor in my higher life; another some-thing is repellant, is not in accord with the the godlike within me—this I reject. I add to my store of truth from Plato, Confucius, Zoroaster or Jesus, as the case may be. It is the modern religion of "culture"—more dangerous than any and all other types of infidelity. It ignores God's way of life; it repudiates God's estimate of sin; it manufactures a plan of redemption without a crucified and divine Christ.

1. To give us some idea of the prevalence of infidelity, glance first at its outcroppings in science. In practical achievements this is a marveleous century. Science has been foremost in the race. Perhaps it is no marvel that science has grown bold, opinionated, reckless. As an illustration of this I give you what is called

I believe in a chaotic nebula selfexistent, evolver of heaven and earth. And in the differentiation of the original homogeneous mass; its first begotten product which was self-formed into land and water, self-organized into plants and animals, reproduced in like species, further developed into higher orders and ultimately refined, rationalized and perfected in man; he descended from the monkey, ascended to the philosopher, and sitteth down in the rights and customs of civilization under the laws of a developing sociology. under the laws of a developing sociology; from thence he shall come again by the disintegration of the heterogenized cosmos back into the original homogeneousness of the chaos.

I believe in the wholly impersonal absolute; the wholly uncatholic church, the disunion of the saints, the survival of the fittest, the persistence of force, the dispersion of the body, and in death everlasting.
